FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—

MONTREAL, MAINE & ATLANTIC NAMES RUSHMORE VP MARKETING

Montreal, Maine & Atlantic Railway, Bangor, Maine, has named Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary Richard J. Rushmore to succeed Frederick M. Jones as vice president Marketing, effective September 2, 2005. Mr. Jones, who joined MMA in December 2004, has returned home to New Jersey to pursue other business interests.

Mr. Rushmore has more than 35 years of transportation experience and joined the former Bangor and Aroostook System in 1993 as VP Marketing. He was named VP Finance and Administration in 2000 and continued in that capacity for the MMA when it acquired the BAR and other Iron Road rail lines in January 2003. He became VP, treasurer and secretary in November 2003, and will continue as secretary in his new position.

Bob Grindrod, president and chief executive officer of Montreal, Maine & Atlantic said, "We are very pleased to have Dick in charge of our Marketing Department. He knows our customers and his marketing, financial and senior management experience with MMA and the predecessor railroads will be invaluable as we continue our focus on exceptional customer service and building the business. We appreciate Fred's help and wish him every success in his new endeavors."

Mr. Rushmore previously served as vice president and general manager for Continental Express and senior vice president of Bar Harbor Airways. He began his transportation career as a trainmaster for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. Rushmore, who resides in Hampden, Maine, earned an M.B.A. in Transportation and Public Utilities from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and received a B.A. in Economics from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

Montreal, Maine & Atlantic operates 745 route miles of line in Maine, New Brunswick, Quebec and Vermont.
